Work Experience

Elavon Inc. (U.S. Bank) Atlanta, Georgia
Finance Manager, Global Investments 2017-Present

Finance Owner for all major business initiatives

- Financial ownership of strategic initiatives, major projects, and acquisitions
- Responsible for obtaining approval from U.S. Bank through a rigorous vetting process
  - This requires partnering with business owners for inputs into modeling, forecasting, and crafting extensive commentary related to benefits realization and the “story” of each project
  - Post-approval, regular updates are required and the same level of vigor is expected
- P&L reporting forecasting, planning, and variance analysis for Marketing, Contract Labor, Amortization, and Technology Credits
- Modeling and forecasting all Capital Expenditures including labor, hardware, and facilities
- Support business functions through major transitions

Major Accomplishments:

- Modeled an investment case for eCommerce and Integrated Payments technology. This led to approval of the largest technology investment U.S. Bank has ever made in a business line.
- Created business cases for three acquisitions, three compliance initiatives, five major facilities renovations, and smaller investments
- Overhauled capital labor reporting into useful, actionable views for finance and technology leaders alike, then automated this reporting. This transformed the way finance, business intelligence, and program managers approached technology development strategy.
- Supported technology and BI groups through Elavon’s transition to 100% Agile development (from ~50/50) by providing high level business requirements and technical requirements for technologies and processes impacted by the transition
